Madison, Wisconsin -- Stephen P. Sinnott, United States Attorney for the Western District of Wisconsin, announced that William M. Onheiber, DOB: 5/28/1946 of Three Lakes, Wisconsin, was sentenced yesterday by Judge John C. Shabaz to 60 months in federal prison for the violation of his conditions of supervised release. Onheiber was found in violation of his conditions of his supervised release based upon his sale of a total of five pounds of marijuana to a confidential informant on February 25 and March 2, 2005.

Onheiber began serving five years of supervised release on October 25, 2002, following a 70-month prison sentence for attempted possession of cocaine powder in the Western District of Oklahoma. Onheiber's supervised release was transferred to the Western District of Wisconsin after his release from prison.

The charges against Onheiber were the result of an investigation conducted by the Wisconsin Department of Justice, Division of Criminal Investigation – Narcotics Bureau. The prosecution of the case has been handled by Assistant U.S. Attorney Peter M. Jarosz.
